Moved by Mrs. Carey and seconded by Mrs. McNern we gave a donation to the Peace Memorial Fund.

We have finished the top of the autograph quilt and decided to quit it in the near future.

After a short business meeting Mrs. Black gave us a splendid report on the conference held in Edmonton last week. We all enjoyed it very much.

The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. H. Olson and the roll call to be a "Tribute to Mothers."

Mrs. Olson won the raffle. After the meeting Mrs. McNern served a lovely supper.

NEW SHIPS FOR C.N.S.S.

Three new modern diesel-driven cargo ships are being constructed for the freighter fleet of the Canadian National Steamships, according to an announcement by R. C. Vaughan, chairman and president of Canadian National System.

They will fly between Eastern Canadian ports and the British West Indies, will have air-conditioned passenger accommodation for 12 passengers and 16,000 cubic feet of refrigerator space.

The sick list the past few weeks is feeling better at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Minter have moved to the Len Minter farm and are getting nicely settled before the spring work begins.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Chaper have moved to the house on the farm owned by Chris, Peacock.

Mrs. Phileas LaFrance of Auburndale is visiting her son Armand this week.

Get ready for Spring!

The trees will soon be taking on their new raiment and spring will be whispering to farmers everywhere "How about a new cultivator?—how about this and that?" Now is the time to get ready for spring. Ready money for the go-ahead farmer is available at the Bank of Montreal. If a loan will help, see your nearest Bank of Montreal manager.

He knows the farmer's problems and is ready to work with you, and to put money to work for you, to make your farm a better farm. Ask for the folder "Quiz for a Go-Ahead Farmer."

HOME AND SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

At the time of writing we do not know of the success or other outcome of the Home and School meeting held last Thursday night at the Town Hall as we were not in attendance. However we would like to see a strong Home and School Association formed in Wainwright. The reason will be outlined later on.

Wainwright is a town that is becoming almost overcrowded with organizations, but this is one that is needed greatly. If it is to be given half a chance it will need the whole-hearted support of the teachers and parents alike. With more rural students attending the schools now it is one way that out of town parents can be kept informed of the education standards that are forever changing.

Major W. E. Frame, director of school administration in Alberta, is reported to have said in Wetaskiwin some time ago "that high school courses are almost entirely academic." The dictionary defines academic as scholarly; literary; theoretical, but not practical. The inference is that young people on leaving High School have not learned a great deal that may be termed useful. Mr. Frame expressed the opinion that algebra, geometry and languages are of little value to girls who in the ordinary course of events will become the Home Makers of our country tomorrow.

There seems to be a definite place in every community for a home and school association where teachers and parents can come together to study this whole question. It is a fact that our education departments can only go so far in educational programs. Perhaps through these associations a great deal might be done to bring about improvements, speed up educational programs, that the authorities might have in mind at the present time.

Just now, moving pictures of an educational nature are finding the right place as part of the studies in some subjects. It has been observed that children who find great difficulty in learning from the printed page are able to do well with lessons in the moving picture form. This is one aspect that the local Home and School Association might find interesting to study. The school has not at the present any facilities for this work.

Listed below are some of the fundamentals that a Home and School Association bring about:
It strengthens home and school life; it adds to the teachers influence and to the parents interest; it is the team work of two most powerful forces in the world; it helps teachers see their work in the wider relationships of the community as well as those of the classroom. All these and many others are some reasons why these associations are formed, but to carry out any program of what might be needed, it is first necessary to have the support of every parent.

Have you given consideration to this? If YOU haven't why not get interested in this much needed program.

THE DUST MENACE

In the August 15th, 1945 issue of the Star there appeared in large type under the following words: "Council to Experiment with Calcium Chloride on Street". That all took place at a council meeting held the 7th day of August, 1945 and on motion of one of the councillors present the secretary was instructed to contact Canadian Industries Limited to ascertain the possibilities of securing same for use in dust control on the streets. Owing to the lateness of the season when the shipment finally arrived, it was decided to with hold street treatment until this spring.

Is it not time that main street was given a fair trial in the experiment now? Surely with the winds of the last few days there is every possible chance that it might help to treat the streets.

Looking south down main street on Saturday night of last week, as far as the naked eye could see there were great clouds of dust choking everyone's lungs and covering merchandise in the stores. The later costing every storekeeper hundreds of dollars yearly in spent energy and time going the regular rounds in the morning doing the dusting.

This is a must in the near future, a must that if it works will be welcomed by town and country people alike. No doubt there have been reasons why this has not been attended to sooner, but in our opinion now is the time to give Calcium Chloride a fair trial on main street.

In a matter of a few years with the water and sewerage system installed, dust menace will be a thing of the past as the streets can then be wetted down which will remedy the nuisance as we know it today. After water and sewerage pipes have been laid it is hoped to have the main portion of our business section paved. This project was discussed, but the council showed foresight in holding off this very worthwhile venture until the necessary pipe installation had been done.

So until more permanent dust controls can be established let's try the Calcium Chloride. It may not work but if it does, oh what a blessing that will be.

Some Aspects Of Rural Electrification

The farmers of Alberta have every sympathy from their city cousins in their desire for rural electrification. The life of a farmer is hard and lonely at the best of times, especially for the women folk. The inconveniences they put up with would drive most city women to drink or bridge. If anybody deserves the comfort and convenience provided by electricity, it is the farm population.

It is therefore all the more important that rural electrification should be proceeded with ardor and steadily. It must be organized so that there will be no breakdown in the future, no reaction, no danger of explosion from over-inflation. Rural electrification must not be made a political issue, for the sake of the farmers. Politicians should be warned against making irresponsible statements which will ultimately do the cause of electrification more harm than good. The unfortunate experience of rural telephones in Alberta should not be repeated in electrification.

These are some of the factors which must be borne in mind:

(1) Electrification is an expensive business, particularly in our sparsely settled Western Canada. Prof. Andrew Stewart, who a couple of years ago made a thorough survey in Alberta for the provincial government, found that only 54 percent of the farmers would probably take electricity, and the average cost of delivering electricity to them (not generating it or distributing it once it reaches the farmyard) would be $376. If 71 percent of the farmers could be induced to take electricity the average cost would come down to $519.

In one Manitoba municipality a preliminary survey showed 92 percent of the farmers anxious to get hydro power, but when approached for a deposit only 43 percent paid. (2) It is just as costly for the farmer as for the power company, even before any electricity is used. In Manitoba it was found that the cost of bringing service to the farmer's yard averaged $673, and in addition the cost to the farmer of appliances equipment and wiring was $611.

The cost of constructing power lines to 20,000 farmers in Alberta is estimated at $12,000,000. This is only the first cost, for on top of that it is estimated that the cost to the farmers for wiring, appliances and equipment would be $15,600,000.

Are the farmers able to pay this? In Manitoba almost half the farmers said they would need help to finance their end of the electrification program.

(3) There is a serious shortage of equipment. The representative of a major electrical company said in Calgary last week that only 10 percent of the desired amount of wire could be turned out in the first quarter of 1946. Manitoba had a program for electrifying 5,000 new farms this year, but has already out its objective to 1,500.

(4) Are very many farmers ready for electricity? Do they understand that for a farmer it must be more

World Of Wheat

BETTER, GREED—BETTER CROPS Since the earliest days of observation farming have never tired of talking about the great benefits to be gained by the sowing of good pure seed. LEVITICUS 19:13 (written about 900 B.C.) says: "Thou shalt not sow thy field with mingled seed."

ARISTOTLE, the Greek, (about 380 A.D.) wrote: "A good plant is not likely to grow from a bad seed." PLINY, a Roman writer, (about 50 B.C.) told us: "After two years unless careful selections were made crops tended to revert to a common type."

Tests made each year by the "Crop Testing Plan" of the true-to-type variety of farmers' fields indicate that this ancient advice is as badly needed today as it ever has been, for too many crops today consist not of one good variety, but sadly enough of mixtures often of undesirable varieties.

The purchase of some good seed, preferably Registered or Certified, undoubtedly will bring splendid returns to farmers in the way of increased incomes and from a modest investment. But good seed this year is scarce. Those who have difficulty, therefore, in purchasing Registered or Certified seed might inquire of any Agent of the Companies associated with the "Crop Testing Plan" for the names and addresses of farmers whose stocks, on test, were found to grade "Crop Testing Plan A" for this is good true-to-type seed.

Below average grain yields are expected from the 1945-46 harvest in New Zealand as a result of reduced acreage and unfavorable weather conditions—Burma's 1945-46 rice crop is estimated at 172 million bushels—barely sufficient for domestic needs—(Burma is normally a large exporter of rice.)

than a convenience? For instance, in Manitoba 90 percent of the farmers ordered iron, but only 15 percent electric ranges. If it is used only for lighting the house and heating, iron, it shouldn't be considered at all. Only when it is taken into the barn, the granary, the pump house, etc., is it worth while for the farmer. That is why the farmer has to pay a large minimum bill and get electricity ever and above that for an extremely low rate.

Canadian Utilities has found that five percent of the customers in the Swallow area use less than the minimum of 20 kilowatt hours per month, paying therefore more than 25 cents for each kw. hour. Electricity is of little use to these customers. It is a luxury. On the other hand, 41 percent are using more than 700 kw. hours per month at a cost of less than 7 cents each. These people are making electricity work and making it pay.

These are some of the many considerations involved in a program of rural electrification. They indicate the magnitude of the problem. Rural electrification is coming. But electricity has to be carefully impeded it.

Home Education

NO COMPANY-MANNERS "Betty, Betty—be quiet!" whispered small Betty's mother. The two were having lunch in an attractive little downtown restaurant. "You are making too much noise with your spoon!" Then, in another minute or two, "Betty, hold your spoon correctly! Don't eat your soup out of the end of the spoon; take it from the side!" A pause for breath then: "And Betty, break that cracker! I declare, I don't believe I'll ever again bring you to a nice place like this! I can't enjoy my lunch one bit—having to watch you and correct you every minute!"

Poor little Betty. She wasn't to blame. She was eating her soup exactly as she would eat it at home. In fact, she was eating it just as she had been eating soup ever since she first had it offered to her.

What then was the trouble? Simply this: there should be no "company manners" with any of us, and certainly not with children. They should be taught the correct way to eat, as well as the correct way to do other things that are a part of our daily lives. If this is done, they will eat just as well in one place as in another just as well at one time as another. There will be no nervous tension surrounding the poor little tots when they are "eating out" and both the mother and child will enjoy such outings exceedingly.

It is just as easy for the mother to teach her child the right way to eat as it is to teach her any way. For instance, if, from the very first time that Betty had been given soup, she had been made to feel that it was quite a treat and rather grown-up to be able to have a grown-up spoon spoon and to eat from the side of it—just as grown-ups did—she would have felt that it was an adventure.

Our own little girl proudly boasted to her brother in her early soup-eating days: "I'm a big girl. Mother gives me soup in a regular bowl, and I eat with a grown-up spoon just like she and Daddy do!"

This was enough to cause her slightly younger brother to ask when he, too, could begin to have soup. And: "Why can't I have soup now, Mommy?"

As a result, Little Brother was given soup, but with a bouillon spoon instead of a soup spoon because it was easier for him to manage. It was the same shape as the larger soup spoon, and he was taught how to take the soup from it. There was no little boy happier than he! Of course, he dribbled it all over his bib the first few times he had soup, but there were no scoldings or rustlings. Half of any battle is won when the child himself asks for the experience.

Seeing youngsters struggle with whole slices of bread seems so ridiculous that one wonders why some parents are so thoughtless. All that is necessary is to silently break the toast or bread the children are given—once or twice is enough; they will then know that one just does not keep a big slice of bread intact, and never again will they even think of doing such a thing.

It is so very, very easy for the busy mother to teach her children correct eating habits; yet far too often she neglects this important phase of their development. She feels that "later on" will be time enough. But why wait till "later on"? Bad habits of eating will then be formed; and once formed, they will be hard to break. Start in the beginning and rejoice in the pleasant result—your child's good table manners.

Young people and, in fact, all people, need talking with, not to.

Atomic power can smash cities. Spiritual power can change them.

Why doesn't somebody do something? Well, you're somebody—are you?

CONTINUATION OF
TO THE RATEPAYERS OF THE
MUNICIPAL DIST. OF VERMILION
RIVER No. 71

deavor to have the main market roads in such condition as will be found highly creditable to the ratepayers of the largest Municipal District in Alberta. This is the objective, and is worthy of the full co-operation of all ratepayers concerned.

To provide for the commitments made, which represents the most modern machine purchased under expert advice, necessitates an expenditure approximating $150,000.00.
In order to partially meet this cost, an advance in the tax rate naturally follows. The current mill rate for Municipal purposes has therefore been fixed at 25 mills, an increase of 3 mills over 1945. On an average assessment of $1000.00 per quarter section, this will represent an increase of only $4.50. It will be of interest to learn that 20% of our estimated current municipal expenditures have been allocated to Public Works service. The administration feels assured that in order to fill the long felt want for first class roads, that few, if any ratepayers, will offer protest, realizing that good roads are so essential to the welfare and convenience of all concerned.

In addition to the foregoing, the administration is aiming to improve conditions generally, so far as is humanly possible. It should, however, be pointed out that while the municipality has a measure of control over expenditures, particularly as pertaining to Public Works, it has no control whatsoever over the rates of taxation with respect to Education, Hospitalization and Social Services.
Regulations for these latter services are served upon the municipality, which are required to be met at specified periods throughout the year.

May we solicit your co-operation and encouragement, in an endeavor to serve, to the best of our ability.
Respectfully submitted,
Yours very truly,
SIDNEY V. LEE,
Official Administrator

Radiograms

John Q. Public likes his information given frankly, briefly, directly. That is probably the main reason why Stan Ross, C.J.C.A. commentator on current Canadian affairs, is so popular with the listeners. Mr. Ross has a knack of putting his finger on the topic that seems to be the immediate public concern, then he gives his views on the subject "straight from the shoulder." He wastes no words. He presents both sides of the picture fairly and squarely—then leaves it to the listener to form his own conclusions.
Occasionally he "steeps on the toes" of some, but Mr. Ross contends that as long as the "too stepping" is all in the interests of a better community, he's doing his duty as a radio commentator and as a citizen of Canada.
Mr. Ross' method of presentation has zoomed his popularity to great heights. Today he is considered as one of the best, if not the best, radio commentators in Canada. He commands a very large listening audience on C.J.C.A. daily Monday through Friday at 12:25 noon.

CLEANING FARM DAIRY UTENSILS

From the Dairy Commissioner, D.
H. McCullum, comes word that cleaning of farm dairy utensils is usually the greatest single factor affecting the keeping quality of milk and cream. It may even be greater than all others combined. To keep farm dairy utensils in the most satisfactory condition they must be free from rust, folds, dents and open seams, the presence of which makes cleaning and sterilizing impossible.

To clean and sterilize utensils the milk should be thoroughly rinsed out or the utensil with lukewarm (not hot) water immediately after use.
The utensil should be scrubbed with a clean brush (not a cloth) in a wash tank of hot water containing a dairy washing powder. Any common brand of washing powder containing a "wetting agent" may be used by following the directions on the package.
Most dairy plants as well as dairy supply houses, can supply such washing powders in convenient packages.
The utensil should then be rinsed thoroughly in clean hot water.
Sterilization completes the process and is absolutely necessary to destroy harmful bacteria.

April 15, 1946

Dear Editor:
In reply to letter regarding Main Street and Eighth Avenue, it is apparent that some people have nothing to do but gossip and look after other peoples affairs. The least they could do would be to complain in person instead of hiding behind a non de plume in a newspaper.

To the party who wrote the letter in last weeks Star, I say, "next time please sign your name if you're not ashamed of your opinions."

Carelessness at Rail Crossings Take Toll

Carelessness of motorists, faulty visibility due to "fogging" of wind-shields and car windows resulting from frosty weather, and failure to heed the time-honored signals STOP, LOOK and LISTEN, continue to take their heavy toll in death and injuries.

This much is clearly evident from statistics compiled by the Board of Transport Commissioners for Canada showing that there were 378 accidents at railway crossings in the Dominion during 1945. These accidents resulted in a death toll of 129 persons and a total of 988 persons were injured, some of them seriously, as the result of contesting the right of way with locomotives and trains.

The Board, breaking the accidents down into various compartments in order to determine underlying causes reports that in 107 cases—nearly a third of the total, it was the automobile which RAN INTO THE TRAIN.

In most other cases appears the entry, "Automobile drove onto crossing in path of train and was struck."

Indicating that impaired visibility has a direct bearing on ratio of crossing accidents—as it has on most other forms of misapprehension motor vehicles—statistics reveal that the months of November and December are most prolific in accidents of this sort. During these months, days are shorter and the cold weather tends to cut down visibility by frosting windshields and windows. The imperative need for widespread use of anti-frosting and de-frosting on all types of motor vehicles, including farm trucks, is clearly evident.

Above all, however, seems to be the need for caution at all times. The railways are doing their best to cut down the crossing accident toll by constant education among their employees and the public, and the Dominion government assists greatly through administration of its Level Crossing fund. Nothing, however, can save drivers from their own folly.

operation with other agencies, works

What Is In Store For Us ?

Will history repeat itself? After the first world war our capitalist economy geared to the profit system built a false prosperity by: Extending foreign loans to maintain huge exports. The first world war changed the United States from a debtor country of two and a half billion dollars to a creditor nation of 14 billion dollars. For ten years after the war hundreds of millions of dollars of credit was extended to Europe annually to maintain exports and keep the wheels of American industry spinning. Excessive credit such as this can ruin nations as well as a local Co-op.

It has been proven that to do a credit business the cost is roughly 4% this money comes from one source, namely profits, and in a Co-op this belongs to you. Accommodation of 15 and 30 days has been our policy from the start don't abuse the privileges extended to you by letting the costs of operation mount. It is to your advantage to make a practise of paying cash or pay your count regularly.
